

C O N T E N T S

JANUARY 2026

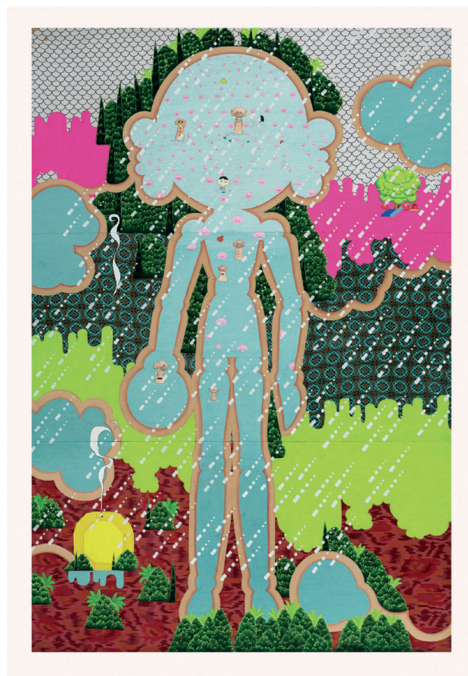

Anoushka Shankar. Photographer: Soujit Das

FEATURE

- 124 A New Dawn: Actor Suhana Khan speaks about passion, patience, and why the work matters more than the applause. By Rasna Bhasin
- 138 Grounded, Gritty, and Unapologetic: Kriti Sanon opens up about instinct-led choices, evolving ambition, and staying real in the spotlight. By Sonal Ved

STYLE

- 40 The Long Voyage: Ashdeen Lilaowala and Bhasha Chakrabarti's recent exhibition at Rhode Island School of Design traces the Parsi gara's journey across oceans, trade routes, and generations. By Anwesh Banerjee

An artwork by artist Natasha Preenja aka Princess Pea

- 44 Show Off: Throughout history, clothes have always filled in the gaps where words couldn't. Why did we lose the theatrical, performative element of fashion in our daily lives? By Arman Khan
- 48 Crafting Everyday Ease: From its Paris atelier to the heart of Mumbai, Patou celebrates women with individualistic expression and a penchant for timeless elegance. By Shivpriya Bajpai

JEWELS & WATCHES

- 80 Past, Perfected: Two watches reveal the true meaning of Breguet's 250-year celebration. By Rasna Bhasin

TALKING POINT

- 84 Beyond Inheritance: Artiste Anoushka Shankar on de-exotifying the sitar, redefining tradition, and making space for honesty. By Malika Halder; Photographs by Soujit Das
- 90 For Art's Sake: With all eyes on India, five new-age collectors reflect on their journeys of patronage that extend beyond private collections toward lasting cultural legacies. By Himanshu Dutta