

1

2

8

3

7

4

6

5

Silver Rising

Long considered gold's accessible counterpart, silver is having a moment.

Compiled By RADHIKA SOMALA

As silver prices climb, the metal is being re-evaluated, shifting from everyday staple to considered investment. Designers are responding by treating silver with greater intention: bolder weights, sculptural forms, pieces made to last. What was once casual now carries value—emotional and material. In a market watching metals closely, silver's rise signals a new respect for a material that has always deserved more.

1. Shooting Star drop huggie hoop earrings, 886 by The Royal Mint, ₹16,900 approx; 2. Large drop earrings, By Pariah, ₹37,400; 3. Triple Elppin drop earrings, Carina Hardy, ₹34,500; 4. The Silver Constellation ring, Heavenly London, ₹17,824 approx; 5. Aesop cord necklace, YSSO, ₹29,306; 6. Large Daisy choker necklace, Anuka Jewellery, ₹41,100; 7. Nimbus ring, Spinelli Kilcollin, ₹2,66,607; 8. Siren ring, Maanesten, ₹11,175.