Reporting of your American Express® Card financial information

We are committed to providing our Card Members with the best experience possible, which includes sharing important information about your Card.

What you should know

As per the RBI circular* regarding submission of credit/financial information to Credit Information Companies (CICs), being a scheduled commercial bank, American Express Banking Corp. India (AEBC) is legally obligated to submit credit/financial information about all their customers.

In alignment with this directive, starting July 2026, credit/financial information for all American Express® Customers will be reported regularly on a weekly basis to the CICs.

Please note that credit/financial information relating to the Card account is reported to CICs under the Basic/Primary Cardmember's card account. Supplementary Cardmembers will not be independently reported to CICs.

There is no action required at your end

In case of any clarification, please call us at the number at the back of your Card. We thank you for your patronage.

Warm regards,

Sanjay Khanna
Chief Executive Officer
American Express Banking Corp., India
Member Since 1996
