Conde Nast Traveller

Why book Amaraanth?

Hidden away from the main streets of Varca and a stone's throw from the little-known Fatrade Beach, the 12-suite Amaraanth marries local Goan charm with world-class amenities.

The backstory

If you feel like you've walked into the beach house of a well-travelled (and well-off) friend, you wouldn't be terribly off. Before it found a second life as a boutique property Amaraanth was, in fact, Binani family's maison de plage. The manicured lawns, impeccably designed rooms and carefully

At Amaraanth, a new boutique hotel in Goa I ticked off two of my travel firsts

Whenever I travel, I solemnly swear by the "never unpack your suitcase" rule. It is rooted in the same grudge I have been holding against hotel spas. Who can ever relax a gazillion miles away from home? Perhaps it was the quietness of South Goa, the roaring laughter at Ritu Dalmia's dinner or Countertop India's dangerously delicious cocktails, but at Amaraanth, a bijou boutique hotel in Goa, I ticked off two of my travel firsts.

Thoughtful Care in Every Detail

Dining at Amaraanth

Amaraanth Kitchen, led by Chef Ritu Dalmia, celebrates global inspiration rooted in fresh, locally sourced produce. Every dish tells a story — crafted for the well-travelled gourmand and meant to be shared with joy.

At The Lab, cocktail curator Pankaj Balachandran transforms Goa's bounty into expressive, sustainable cocktails that reflect a true sense of place. Created in collaboration with Countertop India, the minds behind award-winning bars featured on Asia's 50 Best Bars, each sip is playful, thoughtful, and memorable.

Together, food and cocktails come together as experiences to savour, share, and remember.

Wellness x HVN

The HVN is more than a spa — it is a sanctuary of balance inspired by Shinrin Yoku, the Japanese practice of forest bathing. Every detail is designed to immerse you in nature and restore harmony within.

Blending ancient healing with modern science, our therapies focus on how you feel, live, and renew. Through mindful treatments, meditative rituals, and restorative care, The HVN slows your rhythm, clears your mind, and lightens your body.

Here, stillness becomes a luxury — where stress dissolves, clarity emerges, and calm stays with you long after you leave.
